A very good selection of food specialties made in Rome. You will find all sorts of pasta, pizza, meat and treat. This place is really good for a quick lunch or for a proper specialties dinner.

Make sure you try:

- Trapizzino

(last food stall on the right hand side): pizza dough filled up with typical fresh ingredients

- Supplì

(Fried food section): a unique recipe made in Rome. This is the perfect starter! It is a small ball made of rice, tomato and mozzarella.

- Carciofi:
Artichokes in Rome are a real treat! There is a full stall dedicated to all sorts of artichokes.
- All pasta dishes (at the fresh pasta stall) are worth to be tried!
